

Flores Magon Community- 21 participants

- Confidence in Corazon's Leadership

- The Flores Magon community had an average confidence score of about 4.28. With the results, about 85.7% of the participants believed and were confident in our leadership, while about 9.5% felt neutral and 4.8% were for the most part in disagreement with how confident they were in Corazon's leadership.

- Corazon's leadership treats me like a member of the community, not a statistic

- When asked if Corazon's leadership treats them like a member of the community and not just a statistic, the overwhelming majority felt like our leadership did treat them like valued members, with there being an average score of about 4.71. Within the Flores Magon community, about 90.5% of the participants agreed with the claim that they felt like valued members of the community in regards to how they were treated, while 9.5% felt neutral about how they were treated.

- Recognition by Corazon leadership for members work done in the community

- When asked about the recognition they received for the work they completed by Corazon leadership, the Flores Magon community reflected a more neutral result in comparison to the previous questions with there being an average score of about 3.95. There were no respondents who disagreed with the claim, while 61.9% of respondents agreed with the claim and 38.1% neither agree nor disagree with the claim.

- Spirit of Cooperation in Corazon

- When asked about whether they felt there was a spirit of cooperation in Corazon, the participants of the Flores Magon community displayed a more diverse set of responses, with there being an average score of about 4.04. About 66.6% of the participants agreed with the claim that they believed there was a spirit of cooperation within Corazon, while about 28.6% were neutral and 4.8% were in total disagreement.

- Corazon allows for a culture of diversity

- When asked about if Corazon allows for a culture of diversity among their community, the Flores Magon community were for the most part in agreement with the claim as they displayed an average score of 4.38. No member of the community disagreed with the claim, with 85.7% of the participants agreeing that Corazon does foster a culture of diversity and about 14.3% feeling neutral.

- At Corazon, volunteers and participants have fun

- When the Flores Magon community was asked about whether or not volunteers and participants have fun, the majority of participants were in agreement with the claim as they had an average score of 4.19. About 81% of participants were in agreement with the statement, while 9.5% of participants did not agree and the other 9.5% felt neutral about the claim.

- I feel like I can express my honest opinions without fear of negative consequences

- When asked about whether participants felt like they could express their honest experiences without fear of negative consequences, participants displayed a more neutral average with a score of 3.81. This question yielded more responses in disagreement with the claim, with about 19.1% being in total disagreement, 71.4% being in agreement, and 9.5% having a neutral feeling.
- Any changes that may affect me are communicated to me before they are implemented
  - When asked about whether changes that could have an effect on them are communicated before they are implemented, the Flores Magon community held a more neutral average at about 3.9. The results for this question were the most mixed out of all the questions so far, as about only 61.9% were in agreement with the claim, 28.6% felt neutral about the claim, and about 9.5% mostly disagreed or totally disagreed.
- Safety is a prioritization for this organization
  - The Flores Magon community, when asked about whether safety is a priority for Corazon, mainly agreed with the claim as they had an average score of about 4.24. 85.7% of the respondents mainly agreed or totally agreed with the claim, while 9.5% were not in agreement and 4.8% felt neutral over the claim.
- All Corazon communities are treated fairly and receive equal benefits from Corazon
  - When asked whether they felt that all communities are treated fairly and receive equal benefits from Corazon, the Flores Magon community felt more neutral over the question with an average score of 3.9 among the 21 participants. The majority were in agreement with the claim, with 71.4% of the respondents in the community agreeing, while 14.3% disagreed and the last 14.3% felt neutral over the matter.
- I like the people I work with at Corazon
  - When asked if they liked the people they worked with at Corazon, the Flores Magon community were in a majority agreement displaying an average score of about 4.38. 85.7% of the respondents were in agreement with the statement, while 4.8% for the most part disagreed, and 9.5% felt neutral over the question.
- I enjoy working with the staff at Corazon
  - When asked whether they enjoyed working with the staff at Corazon, there was a large consensus among the respondents as they agreed with the statement, having an average score of about 4.48. 85.7% of the respondents agreed with the statement of enjoying working with the staff at Corazon, with the remaining 14.3% being neutral over the question.
- I enjoy working with Corazon volunteers
  - When answering whether they liked working with Corazon volunteers, there was an overwhelming majority in terms of agreeing with the statement, with there being an average score of 4.62. 95.2% of the respondents agreed with the statement, with only 4.8% expressing themselves as neutral.

- I enjoy working with other Corazon participants (people from the community)
  - When asked whether they enjoyed working with other Corazon participants, which included people from the community, the overall consensus was that they agreed with the statement as there was an average score of about 4.33. 81% of the respondents were in agreement with the statement, while the remaining 19% voted to be neutral.
- I have the opportunity to interact with the members of Corazon's Board of Directors
  - When asked if they had the opportunity to interact with members of Corazon's Board of Directors, the overall consensus was that the participants agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.19. About 71.4% of the respondents agreed with the statement, while 23.8% voted neutral and only 4.8% voted for mostly disagreeing with the statement.
- Staffing levels are adequate to provide quality services
  - When asked whether they believed that the staffing levels were adequate to provide quality services, the consensus was that it was adequate, having an average score of about 4.1. 81% of the respondents voted in agreement with the statement, while 9.5% responded neutrally and the remaining 9.5% voted in complete disagreement.
- Corazon's leaders and managers understand the real needs and desires of my community
  - When responding to this question, the overall consensus amongst the respondents was that they did agree that Corazon's leadership understood the needs and desires of their community, having an average score of about 4.14. About 81% of the respondents were in agreement with the statement, while about 14.2% voted neutral and 4.8% voted to be in disagreement for the most part.
- Corazon listens to me
  - When asked about whether they felt listened to by Corazon, most respondents responded that they did feel listened to, with there being an average score of 4.43. 90.5% of the respondents voted that they did agree with the statement that Corazon made them feel listened to, while the remaining 9.5% voted neutral on the question.
- Corazon responds to the needs of my community
  - When answering whether Corazon responds to the needs of their community, the overall majority of the community voted in agreement with the statement that Corazon did respond to their needs, with the average score being 4.33. 85.7% of the respondents voted that they felt that Corazon did respond to the needs of their community, while 9.5% voted neutral on the question and the remaining 4.8% voted in complete disagreement.

- I feel like I have a voice and vote in Corazon's programs

- When asked about whether they felt that they had a voice and vote in Corazon's programs, the overall consensus was that the Flores Magon community felt like they did have a voice and vote in Corazon's programs, as there was an average score of 4.43. No respondents voted in disagreement, with 85.7% of the community voting in agreement with the statement and the remaining 14.3% voting to be neutral.

- Corazon offers the programs and education I need and desire

- When responding to this question, the overall consensus was in agreement with the statement as there was an average score of 4.3 across the 21 respondents. 85.7% of the respondents voted in agreement with the statement, while 9.5% voted neutrally and the remaining 4.8% voted in complete disagreement.

- The staff at Corazon promotes my self-sufficiency

- When asked this question about whether Corazon helps promote the self-sufficiency of the community, there was a large agreement in support of the claim, with the community sharing an average score of 4.3. Similar to the previous question, 85.7% of respondents voted in agreement with the statement, while 9.5% voted neutrally and the remaining 4.8% voted in disagreement for the most part.

- I have the opportunity to help create new community projects

- When asked about whether they felt they had the opportunity to help create new community projects in Corazon, the general consensus was in support and agreement with the statement, having an average score of 4.43. We saw 81% of respondents express that they do feel like they have the opportunity to help create new community projects, while 14.2% of the respondents voted neutrally and the remaining 4.8% voted in disagreement with the statement.

- Corazon strengthens my family

- When asked about whether they felt as if Corazon helped strengthened their family, we were able to see an extremely positive result as the overall consensus within the Flores Magon community believed that Corazon did help strengthen their family, having an average score of 4.43. 90.5% of respondents voted in agreement with the statement, while 9.5% voted neutrally and no member of the community voted in disagreement.

- The training that Corazon offers has been helpful to me and my family

- When responding to this question, we noticed that the Flores Magon community expressed an overwhelmingly positive support for the statement, sharing an average score of 4.67. 90.5% of the respondents voted in support of the statement, while 9.5% voted neutrally and no members of the community voted to disagree.

- How many years in Corazon
  - Among the 21 respondents from the Flores Magon community, 4 of the community members have been apart of Corazon for 10+ years, while 2 community members have been in Corazon for about 7-9 years, 1 community member has been involved for 4-6 years, and the majority, 14 community members, have joined more recently and have been in Corazon for about 1-3 years.
- Needs Septic Tank
  - When asked if they needed a septic tank, 9 of the community members from the Flores Magon community said that they did need a septic tank, while the remaining 12 members said they did not.
- Your area has access to municipal water and sewage connection
  - When asked if their area had access to municipal water and sewage connection, 16 of the community members said they did have access, while 5 said they did not.
- Will a water truck fit on your street to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank?
  - When asked this question, 19 of the community members declared that a water truck would be able to fit on their street to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank, while only 2 community members said no.
- A septic tank pumper truck will fit on your road and be able to access the tank
  - When asked this question, 19 of the community members stated that a septic tank pumper would fit on their road and would be able to access the tank, while only 2 community members disagreed.

Nuevo Milenio- 18 participants

- Confidence in Corazon's Leadership
  - When the Nuevo Milenio community voted on whether they felt confident in Corazon's leadership, the overall consensus within the community was that they did feel confident in the leadership Corazon provided. Among the 18 participants, 77.78% of the community members voted stating their confidence in Corazon's leadership, while the remaining 22.22% voted neutrally.
- Corazon's leadership treats me like a member of the community, not a statistic
  - When answering this question on the survey, the Nuevo Milenio community appeared to be in agreement for the most part with the statement, displaying an average score of 4.28. Amongst the community members, 83.33% of the participants voted in agreement with the statement, while 11.11% voted neutrally and the remaining 5.56% voted in complete disagreement with the statement.

- The leaders and managers at Corazon give me plenty of recognition for a job well done
  - When the Nuevo Milenio community voted as to whether they felt like they received plenty of recognition for the work they did, the community for the most part agreed and felt like they did receive the adequate amount of recognition, having an average score of 4. The majority of members voted in agreement making 72.22% of the vote, whereas 16.67% of the respondents voted neutrally and the remaining 11.11% voted in complete disagreement with the statement.
- I think there is a spirit of cooperation within Corazon
  - When answering the question, we once again saw a common consensus within the community in which the members for the most part agreed with the claim, having an average score of 4.11. Among the members, 72.22% of the respondents voted in agreement with the statement whereas 16.67% of the community voted neutrally and the remaining 11.11% voted in disagreement for the most part.
- Corazon allows for a culture of diversity
  - When asked about whether they believed that Corazon allowed for a culture of diversity, we were able to see an overwhelming majority agree with the statement, having an average score of 4.56. Of the respondents, 94.44% of the community voted in agreement with the statement, while the remaining 5.56% voted in complete disagreement with the statement.
- At Corazon, volunteers and participants have fun
  - When the respondents in the Nuevo Milenio community voted on whether they believed that volunteers and participants have fun at Corazon, we were able to see a mass agreement between the participants as they had an average score of 4.28. No respondents voted disagreeing with the statement, with 77.78% of the participants agreeing with the statement and the remaining 22.22% voting neutrally.
- I feel like I can express my honest opinions without fear of consequences
  - When answering this question on the survey, this is where we saw extremely mixed results among the participants, as the average score displayed a neutral average at 3.33. Among the participants themselves, 55.55% voted in agreement with the statement, while only 5.55% voted neutrally and the remaining 38.9% voted in disagreement with the statement.
- Any changes that may affect me are communicated to me before they are implemented
  - When answering this question on the survey, the general consensus within the community was that of agreement with the statement as they displayed an average score of 4.16. Among the participants, 77.78% voted in agreement with the statement, while 11.11% voted neutrally and the remaining 11.11% voted in disagreement with the statement.

- Safety is a prioritization for this organization
  - When answering whether or not they believed that safety is a prioritization for Corazon, we saw an overwhelming agreement that supported the notion that they believed that Corazon does prioritize safety, having an average score of 4.55. Among the participants, 88.88% of the respondents voted in agreement, with the majority being in complete agreement, and 5.56% voted neutrally and the remaining 5.56% voted in complete disagreement.
- All Corazon communities are treated fairly and receive equal benefits from Corazon
  - When answering this question, we noticed that there was not a general agreement with the statement as the Nuevo Milenio community displayed a neutral average score at 3.94. Among the participants themselves, 66.67% voted in agreement with the statement, while 22.22% voted neutrally and the remaining 11.11% voted in disagreement with the statement.
- I like the people I work with at Corazon
  - When asked whether they like working with the people at Corazon, we noticed that the community for the most part was in agreement with the statement, having an average score of 4.38. Among the participants themselves, 83.33% of the respondents voted in agreement with the statement that they do like the people they work with at Corazon, while the remaining 16.67% voted neutrally on the matter, with none of the respondents voting in disagreement.
- I enjoy working with the staff at Corazon
  - When asked if they enjoyed working with the staff at Corazon, we noticed that the community greatly agreed with the statement, as they had an average score of 4.5. With how the respondents voted on the statement, 88.89% of the community voted expressing that they do like working with the staff at Corazon, while the remaining 11.11% voted neutrally.
- I enjoy working with Corazon volunteers
  - When asked if they enjoyed working with Corazon volunteers, we noticed an overwhelming consensus within the community that proved that the Nuevo Milenio community did enjoy working with Corazon volunteers, having an average score of 4.83. Among the participants, all 18 voted in agreement with the statement, with no member of the community voting neutral or disagreeing with the statement.
- I enjoy working with other Corazon participants (people from the community)
  - When answering whether they liked working with other Corazon participants, we noticed that the general consensus among the participants was that they agreed that they did in fact like working with other Corazon volunteers, having an average score of 4.44. Among the participants, 83.33% of the community voted in agreement with the statement, while the remaining 16.67% voted neutral.

- I have the opportunity to interact with the members of Corazon's Board of Directors
  - When asked if the members of the community felt like they could interact with the members of Corazon's Board of directors, we noticed that there was somewhat a little more variety in the responses but the general consensus was in agreement with the statement, having an average score of 4.2. Among the community members, 77.78% of the respondents voted in agreement with the statement, while 16.67% of the respondents voted neutrally and the remaining 5.55% voted in disagreement with the statement.
- Staffing levels are adequate to provide quality services
  - When answering on whether they believed Corazon's staffing levels are adequate to ensure quality service, we noticed that the community generally agreed for the most part that they did believe Corazon provided the adequate level of staffing to ensure quality services, having an average score of 4.1. Among the respondents, 77.78% voted in agreement, whereas 5.55% voted neutrally and the remaining 16.67% voted in disagreement with the statement.
- Corazon's leaders and managers understand the real needs and desires of my community
  - When answering this question on the survey, the general consensus among the participants was that they did believe that Corazon's leadership understood the needs and desires of their community, having an average score of 4.27. Among the participants, 77.78 voted in agreement with the statement, while 5.55% voted neutrally and the remaining 16.67% disagreed for the most part.
- Corazon listens to me
  - When asked if they believed that Corazon listened to them, the community agreed for the most part on the statement, as they had an average score of 4. Among those who participated, 66.67% of the respondents agreed with the statement, while 16.67% voted neutrally and the remaining 16.66% voted in disagreement with the statement.
- Corazon responds to the needs of my community
  - When asked if they believed that Corazon responds to the needs of their community, the respondents for the most part agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.3. Among those who participated in the survey, 83.33% of respondents voted in agreement with the statement, while 5.56% voted neutrally and the remaining 11.11% disagreed for the most part.
- I feel like I have a voice and vote in Corazon's programs
  - When asked about whether they felt like they had a vote in Corazon's programs, we noticed that there was much more of a neutral response among the participants, having an average score of 3.94. Among those who responded, 61.11% voted in agreement with the statement, while 27.78% voted neutrally and the remaining 11.11% voted in disagreement with the statement.

- Corazon offers the programs and education I need and desire
  - When answering this question on the survey, the general consensus within the community was that they mostly agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.2. 77.78% of the respondents voted in agreement with the statement, while the remaining 22.22% voted neutrally, with there not being a single respondent who disagreed with the statement.
- The staff at Corazon promotes my self-sufficiency
  - When asked if they believed that the staff at Corazon helped promote their self-sufficiency, the respondents seemed to generally agree with the statement, having an average score of 4.27. Among those who responded, 72.22% voted in agreement with the statement, while 22.22% voted neutrally, and the remaining 5.56% voted in disagreement.
- I have the opportunity to help create new community projects
  - When asked if they believed that they had the opportunity to help create new community projects, the respondents within the community generally agreed with one another and the statement as they had an average score of 4.22. Among those who responded, 77.78% voted in agreement with the statement, while 16.67% voted neutrally and the remaining 5.55% disagreed.
- Corazon strengthens my family
  - When asked if they believed that Corazon help strengthen their family, we noticed that the responses in the Nuevo Milenio community generally agreed that Corazon did help strengthen their families, having an average score of 4.2. Among the participants, 72.22% voted in agreement with the statement, while 22.22% voted neutrally and the remaining 5.56% disagreed with the statement for the most part.
- The training that Corazon offers has been helpful to me and my family
  - When answering the last question on the survey, the Nuevo Milenio community showed that they generally agree with the statement that the training Corazon has offered has been helpful to them and their family, having an average score of 4.38. Among those who participated, 83.33% voted in agreement with the statement, while the remaining 16.67% voted neutrally, with not a single respondent disagreeing with the statement.
- How many years in Corazon
  - When asked how many years they have been a part of Corazon, only 2 members of the Nuevo Milenio community have been a part of Corazon for 10+ years, while 1 member has been a part of Corazon for 7-9 years, and 15 members have only been a part of Corazon for 1-3 years.
- Needs Septic Tank

- When asked if a septic tank would be needed, only 4 community members said that it would be needed, while the remaining 14 community members said no, with 2 claiming to already have a septic tank.

Your area has access to municipal water and sewage connection

- When asked this on the survey, 11 of the community members stated that they did have access to municipal water and sewage connection, while 7 community members said they did not.
- Will a water truck fit on your street to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank?
  - When asked this on the survey, 15 community members stated that a water truck would fit on their street to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank, while only 2 community members stated no.
- A septic tank pumper truck will fit on your road and be able to access the tank
  - When asked if a septic tank pumper would fit on their road and be able to access the tank, 14 community members voted yes, while the remaining 4 voted that a septic tanker would not be able to fit on their road and access the tank.

Cumbres- 16 participants

- Confidence in Corazon's leadership
  - When asked about whether they felt confident in Corazon's leadership, we noted that the Cumbres community heavily agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.56. Among those who participated, there were no respondents who voted in disagreement with the statement, as 93.75% of the community voted in agreement while the remaining 6.25% voted neutrally.
- Corazon's leadership treats me like a member of the community, not a statistic
  - When the Cumbres community voted on this statement on the survey, we noticed that the general consensus within the community was that they agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.5. Among the participants, 81.25% voted in agreement with the statement, while the remaining 18.75% voted neutrally on the statement, as no participant voted disagreeing with the statement.
- The leaders and managers at Corazon give me plenty of recognition for a job well done
  - When the Cumbres community was asked this question on the survey, we once again noticed that the general consensus was that of in agreement with the statement although the responses displaying more diverse results compared to the previous questions, having an average score of 4.31. Among the participants, 81.25% of the community voted in agreement with the statement, while 12.5% voted neutrally on the statement and the remaining 6.25% was in complete disagreement with the statement.
- I think there is a spirit of cooperation within Corazon

- When answering on whether they believed there existed a spirit of cooperation within Corazon, the Cumbres community was for the most part in a general agreement with the statement, having an average score of 4.44. Among those who voted, 87.5% of the community voted in agreement with the statement while the remaining 12.5% voted neutrally while no members of the community disagreed with the statement.
- Corazon allows for a culture of diversity
  - When the Cumbres community was asked whether they believed Corazon allowed for a culture of diversity, the general consensus within the community was that this statement was true, having an average score of 4.25. Among those who participated in the survey, 81.25% of the community voted in agreement with the statement, while 6.25% voted neutrally and the remaining 12.5% voted disagreeing with the statement.
- At Corazon, volunteers and participants have fun
  - When asked on the survey on whether or not they believed that volunteers and participants at Corazon had fun, we noted that the Cumbres community was pretty much in agreement with the statement as not a single participant voted against the statement, having an average score of 4.375. Among those who participated, 87.5% of the community voted in agreement while the remaining 12.5% voted neutrally on the statement.
- I feel like I can express my honest opinions without fear of consequence
  - When answering whether they felt they could express their opinions without fear of consequence in Corazon, we noted that the Cumbres community displayed more diverse responses, although the majority still did agree, compared to their responses to the previous statements, having an average score of 4.06. Among the participants, 68.75% voted in agreement with the statement, while 25% voted neutrally and the remaining 6.25% voted disagreeing for the most part.
- Any changes that may affect me are communicated to me before they are implemented
  - When answering this question on the survey, it was difficult to gather a conclusive response from the community because of how diverse the responses were from the Cumbres community, having an average score of 3.625. Among those who participated, 56.25% voted in agreement with the statement, while 18.75% voted neutrally and the remaining 25% voted disagreeing with the statement.
- Safety is a prioritization for this organization
  - When asked on the survey on whether they believed safety is a prioritization for Corazon, we noted that the Cumbres community was in heavy agreement with the statement, as the community had an average score of 4.875. Among those who participated, not a single member voted in disagreement as 93.75% voted in major agreement with the statement and the remaining 6.25% voted neutrally.

- All Corazon communities are treated fairly and receive equal benefits from Corazon
  - When answering this question on the survey, we noted that the Cumbres community was once again divided on the statement making it hard to attain a clear answer, as the community had an average score of 3.625. Among the participants, 50% voted in agreement with the statement, while 25% voted neutrally, and the remaining 25% voted disagreeing for the most part with the statement.
- I like the people I work with at Corazon
  - When asked if they liked working with the people they worked with at Corazon, we noticed that the Cumbres community for the most part was in agreement with the statement as they had an average score of 4.375. Among the participants, 81.25% voted in agreement with the statement, while the remaining 18.75% voted neutrally while no participants voted disagreeing with the statement.
- I enjoy working with the staff at Corazon
  - When the Cumbres community was asked if they enjoyed working with the staff at Corazon, we noticed that the community was pretty much in major agreement with the statement as they had an average score of 4.56. Among the participants, 93.75% of the participants voted agreeing with the statement while the remaining 6.25% voted neutrally on the statement.
- I enjoy working with Corazon volunteers
  - When asked if they enjoyed working with Corazon volunteers, the Cumbres community was in major agreement with the statement as the community had an average score of 4.81. Among the participants, all 16 (100%) voted expressing that they do enjoy working with Corazon volunteers.
- I enjoy working with other Corazon participants (other people from the community)
  - When answering this question on the survey, we noted that once again the Cumbres community heavily agreed with the statement as they had an average score of 4.625. Among those who responded, 93.25% voted agreeing with the statement while the remaining 6.25% voted neutrally.
- I have the opportunity to interact with the members of Corazon's Board of Directors
  - When answering this question on the survey, the Cumbres community was more divided on the statement in comparison to the previous statements, as the community had an average score of 3.94. Within those in the community that responded, 56.25% voted agreeing with the statement, while 31.25% voted neutrally, and the remaining 12.5% disagreed for the most part.
- Staffing levels are adequate to provide quality services
  - When asked whether they believed that the staffing levels at Corazon were sufficient, the general consensus within the community was that of in agreement with the statement, as the community had an average score of 4.25. Among those who responded, 75% voted agreeing while the remaining 25% voted neutrally.

- Corazon's leaders and managers understand the real needs and desires of my community
  - The Cumbres community was once again somewhat divided, although the majority did agree, when answering this question, as they displayed a more neutral average at 3.94. Among those who voted, 62.5% voted in agreement with the statement, while 31.25% voted neutrally and the remaining 6.25% voted in heavy disagreement.
- Corazon listens to me
  - When asked if they felt that Corazon listened to them, the general consensus within the community was that they agreed for the most part with the statement, as they had an average score of 4.25. 75% of the community agreed with the statement while the remaining 25% voted neutrally.
- Corazon responds to the needs of my community
  - When asked this question on the survey, the Cumbres community generally agreed with the statement as they had an average score of 4.06, although there was a quite decent percentage of the community that was unsure if they agreed or disagreed. 68.75% of the community agreed with the statement while the remaining 31.25% voted neutral.
- I feel like I have a voice and vote in Corazon's programs
  - When asked this question on the survey, the Cumbres community generally agreed as they had an average score of 4.125. Among those who responded, 75% agreed with the statement while 18.75% voted neutral and the remaining 6.25% disagreed with the statement.
- Corazon offers the programs and education I need and desire
  - When responding to this question on the survey, we noted that the Cumbres community generally agreed with the statement, although there were diverse responses, as they had an average score of 4.06. 68.75% of the community voted in agreement with the statement, while 25% voted neutral, and the remaining 6.25% voted in major disagreement.
- The staff at Corazon promotes my self-sufficiency
  - When asked this question on the survey, we noted that the Cumbres community heavily agreed with the statement as they had an average score of 4.5. 81.25% of the community voted in agreement with the statement, while the remaining 18.75% voted neutral.
- I have the opportunity to help create new community projects
  - When answering this question on the survey, the Cumbres community was in a general agreement that they did feel like they had the opportunity to help create new community projects at Corazon, having an average score of 4.44. 87.5% of the community voted in agreement with the statement, while the remaining 12.5% voted neutrally.

- Corazon strengthens my family

- When asked if they felt like Corazon strengthened their families, the Cumbres community was in heavy agreement with the statement, having an average score of 4.625. 87.5% of the community voted agreeing with the statement while the remaining 12.5% voted neutrally.

- The training that Corazon offers has been helpful to me and my family

- When responding to this question on the survey, the Cumbres community heavily agreed with the statement as they had an average score of 4.625. 93.75% of the community voted agreeing with the statement, while the remaining 6.25% voted neutral.

- How many years in Corazon

- When asked how many years they had been apart of Corazon, 6 of the Cumbres community members responded that they had been apart of Corazon for 10+ years, while 1 community member responded with 7-9 years, 2 community members stated that they had been apart of Corazon for 4-6 years, and the remaining 7 community members stated they had only been apart of Corazon for 1-3 years.

- Needs Septic Tank

- When the Cumbres community was asked if they would need a septic tank, 12 of the community members stated that they would not need a septic tank, while 4 responded that they would.

- Your area has access to municipal water and sewage connection

- When the Cumbres community was asked if their area had access to municipal water and a sewage connection, 12 of the community members said that they did, while 4 community members stated that they did not.

- Will a water truck fit on your street to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank?

- When asked if a water truck would fit on their street to be able to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank, 13 of the community members stated that it would, while 3 community members said no.

- A septic tank pumper truck will fit on your road and be able to access the tank

- When asked if a septic tank pumper would fit on their road and be able to access the tank, 15 of the community members agreed while only one member responded with no.

Canon Carretas- 22 participants

- Confidence in Corazon's Leadership

- When asked if they felt confident in Corazon's leadership, the Canon Carretas community displayed a variety of responses that although the majority agreed, there were numerous mixed responses, having an average score of 3.86. 63.63% of the community agreed with the statement, while 31.81% of the community voted neutrally, and the remaining 4.56% heavily disagreed.
- Corazon's leadership treats me like a member of the community, not a statistic
  - When answering this question on the survey, we found it difficult to gather a clear representation of the community on the statement as they had an average of 3.41. 45.45% of the community agreed with the statement, while 31.81% voted neutral, and the remaining 22.74% of the community disagreed.
- The leaders and managers at Corazon give me plenty of recognition for a job well done
  - When responding to this question on the statement, we once again noted that the community was divided in terms of how they responded, having an average of 3.45. 45.45% of the community agreed with the statement, while 36.36% voted neutral, and the remaining 18.19% disagreed.
- I think there is a spirit of cooperation within Corazon
  - When asked this question on the survey, we noticed the community responded more in agreement with the statement although still having a neutral average, being 3.86. 59.1% of the community agreed with the statement, while 36.36% voted neutral, and the remaining 4.54% heavily disagreed with the statement.
- Corazon allows for a culture of diversity
  - When asked if they believed Corazon allowed for a culture of diversity, the Canon Carretas community once again displayed a more neutral stance on the statement, but one more leaning towards agreeing with the statement, as they had an average score of 3.86. Among those who participated, 59.1% agreed with the statement, while 36.36% voted neutral, and the remaining 4.54% disagreed completely
- At Corazon, volunteers and participants have fun
  - When responding to this question, the community appeared to be more in agreement compared to previous responses, having an average of 3.82. 63.6% of the community agreed with the statement, while 31.8% voted neutral, and the remaining 4.6% heavily disagreed.
- I feel like I can express my honest opinions without fear of consequence
  - When responding to this question, the community appeared to be divided on how they felt about the statement, having an average score of 3.45. 50% of the community agreed with the statement, while 31.8% voted neutral, and the remaining 18.2% disagreed with the statement.
- Any changes that may affect me are communicated to me before they are implemented

- When answering this question on the survey, the community once again appeared to be divided on the matter as they had an average score of 3.4. Among the respondents, 54.5% voted in agreement with the statement, while 18.2% voted neutral, and 27.3% disagreed.
- Safety is a prioritization for this organization
  - The community appeared to be in more of an agreement than previous responses when voting on this statement, having an average score of 3.82. Among those who responded, 63.6% agreed, while 27.3% voted neutral, and the remaining 9.1% heavily disagreed.
- All Corazon communities are treated fairly and receive equal benefits from Corazon
  - When responding to this question on the survey, it appeared that the community was divided on the statement as they had an average score of 3.2. Among the participants, 41% agreed with the statement, while 27.3% voted neutral, and the remaining 31.7% disagreed with the statement.
- I like the people I work with at Corazon
  - When responding to this question on the survey, it appeared that the community once agreed, for the most part, with the statement as they had an average score of 3.81. Among the respondents, 63.6% voted in agreement, while 22.7% voted neutral, and the remaining 13.7% disagreed.
- I enjoy working with the staff at Corazon
  - When responding to the survey, the community appeared to be in more of a general agreement with this statement as they had an average score of 3.86. Among the respondents, 68.2% agreed, while 18.2% voted neutral, and 13.6% disagreed with the statement.
- I enjoy working with Corazon volunteers
  - When asked if they enjoyed working with Corazon volunteers, the overall consensus within the community was that they agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.2. Among the participants, 77.3% agreed with the statement, while 18.2% voted neutral, and 4.5% disagreed.
- I enjoy working with other Corazon participants (other people from the community)
  - When answering if they enjoyed working with other Corazon participants, the community, once again the general consensus within the community was that of in agreement with the statement, having an average score of 4.13. Among the participants, 81.8% voted in agreement with the statement, while 13.6% voted neutral, and the remaining 4.6% voted disagreeing with the statement.
- I have the opportunity to interact with the members of Corazon's Board of Directors
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the community for the most part agreed with the statement, although there were mixed opinions, having an average score of 3.95. Among the respondents, 63.6% agreed with the statement, while 31.8% voted neutral, and the remaining 4.6% heavily disagreed.

- Staffing levels are adequate to provide quality services
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the community appeared to be divided on the statement as they had an average score of 3.59. Among the respondents, 45.5% agreed with the statement, while 50% voted neutral, and the remaining 4.5% disagreed.
- Corazon's leaders and managers understand the real needs and desires of my community
  - When responding to this statement on the survey, the community appeared to be slightly in agreement with the statement although having mixed responses, as they had an average score of 3.6. Among the respondents, 54.5% voted in agreement, while 31.8% voted neutral, and 13.7% disagreed.
- Corazon listens to me
  - When asked if they believed that Corazon listened to them, we noticed that the community was split on whether they felt like Corazon did listen to them, having an average score of 3.5. Among the participants, 45.5% voted in agreement with the statement, while 41% voted neutrally, and 13.5% voted in complete disagreement.
- Corazon responds to the needs of my community
  - When asked if they felt that Corazon responded to the needs of their community, it appeared that the community slightly leaned towards an agreement although there were mixed responses, as the community had an average score of 3.7. Among the participants, 54.5% voted in agreement with the statement, while 31.8% voted neutrally, and 13.7% disagreed.
- I feel like I have a voice and vote in Corazon's programs
  - When asked this question on the survey, we noticed that the community was divided in terms of how they responded to the statement, having an average score of 3.4. Among those who responded, 45.5% of the community agreed with the statement, while 31.8% voted neutrally, and 22.7% disagreed with the statement.
- Corazon offers the programs and education I need and desire
  - When responding to this statement on the survey, it appeared that the general consensus within the community was that of in agreement with the statement, having an average score of 4.05. Among the participants, 72.7% agreed, while 18.2% voted neutrally, and 9.1% disagreed.
- The staff at Corazon promotes my self-sufficiency
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the community appeared to generally agree with the statement, having an average score of 4. Among those who responded, 68.2% agreed that the staff at Corazon did help promote their self-sufficiency, while 22.7% voted neutrally, and 9.1% disagreed.

- I have the opportunity to help create new community projects
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the community responded with variety, with the slight majority voting in agreement, having an average score of 3.7. Among those who responded, 54.5% agreed, while 36.4% voted neutrally, and 9.1% disagreed.
- Corazon strengthens my family
  - When asked if they believed that Corazon strengthened their family, the general consensus within the Canon Carretas community was that they agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.1. Among those who surveyed, 72.7% agreed, while 22.7% voted neutrally, and the remaining 4.6% disagreed.
- The training that Corazon offers has been helpful to me and my family
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the majority agreed with the statement, although there were mixed opinions, as the community had an average score of 3.5. Among those surveyed, 59.1% agreed, while 27.3% voted neutral, and 13.6% disagreed.
- How many years in Corazon
  - When the Canon Carretas community was asked how many years they had been in Corazon, 2 of the community members had responded that they had been apart of Corazon for 10+ years, while 2 members stated they have been in Corazon for 7-9 years, 4 members have been in Corazon for 4-6 years, and 14 members have only been in Corazon for 1-3 years.
- Needs septic tank
  - When asked if they would need a septic tank, 9 of the community members said that they would need a septic tank, while 13 of the community members stated they would not need a septic tank.
- Your area has access to municipal water and sewage connection
  - When asked if their area had access to municipal water and sewage connection, 18 of the community members stated that they did have access to municipal water and sewage connection, while only 4 community members stated that they did not.
- Will a water truck fit on your street to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank?
  - When asked this on the survey, 20 of the community members responded that a water truck would fit on their street and would be able to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank, while only 2 community members said that it would not.
- A septic tank pumper truck will fit on your road and be able to access the tank
  - When asked if a septic tank pumper would fit on their road and be able to access the tank, 20 of the community members stated that it would, while only 2 responded with no.

Cerro Azul- 34 participants

- Confidence in Corazon's leadership
- When asked if they felt confident in Corazon's leadership, the Cerro Azul community was in a slight majority agreement with the statement but did have mixed responses, having an average score of 3.65. Among the respondents, 58.8% agreed with the statement, while 26.5% voted neutrally, and 14.7% disagreed.
- Corazon's leadership treats me like a member of the community, not a statistic
  - When responding to this question on the survey, it appeared that the general consensus within the community was that they agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.29. Among the respondents, 79.4% agreed with the statement, while 17.6% voted neutrally, and the remaining 3% completely disagreed with the statement.
- The leaders and managers at Corazon give me plenty of recognition for a job well done
  - When responding to this question on the survey, we noted that the Cerro Azul community agreed for the most part although they did have a neutral average, with their average score being 3.85. Among the respondents, 73.5% agreed with the statement, while 8.8% voted neutrally, and 17.7% disagreed.
- I think there is a spirit of cooperation within Corazon
  - When asked if they believed whether or not a spirit of cooperation existed in Corazon, the general consensus within the community was that they agreed with the statement, as the community had an average score of 4.2. Among the respondents, 79.4% agreed with the statement, while 14.7% voted neutrally, and the remaining 5.9% disagreed.
- Corazon allows for a culture of diversity
  - When asked if they felt that Corazon allowed for a culture of diversity, the Cerro Azul community seemed to generally agree with the statement, having an average score of 4.29. Among the participants, 82.4% agreed with the statement, while 11.8% voted neutrally, and 5.8% disagreed.
- At Corazon, volunteers and participants have fun
  - When answering if they believed that volunteers and participants have fun at Corazon, the Cerro Azul community appeared to generally agree with the statement, having an average score of 4.26. Among the participants, 76.5% seemed to agree with the statement, while 14.7% voted neutrally, and 8.8% disagreed.
- I feel like I can express my honest opinions without fear of consequence
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the Cerro Azul community seemed to generally disagree, as the community had an average score of 2.97.

Among the participants, 38.2% agreed with the statement, while 23.5% voted neutrally, and 38.2% disagreed.

- Any changes that may affect me are communicated to me before they are implemented
  - The Cerro Azul community seemed to be once again divided on this statement on the survey, as the community had an average score of 3.38. Among the participants, 50% seemed to agree with the statement, while 32.4% voted neutrally, and 17.6% disagreed.
- Safety is a prioritization for this organization
  - When asked if they believed that safety was a priority at Corazon, the Cerro Azul community seemed to strongly agree with the statement, having an average score of 4.53. Among the participants, 88.2% agreed with the statement, while 5.9% voted neutrally, and 5.9% disagreed with the statement.
- All Corazon communities are treated fairly and receive equal benefits from Corazon
  - When asked if they believed that all Corazon communities are treated fairly and receive equal benefits from Corazon, the Cerro Azul community had a majority agree with the statement but still seemed to be indecisive on the statement, having an average score of 3.6. Among the participants, 58.8% agreed, while 20.6% voted neutrally, and 20.6% disagreed.
- I like the people I work with at Corazon
  - When the Cerro Azul community was asked if they enjoyed the people they work with at Corazon, the community seemed to generally agree with the statement, as they had an average score of 4.3. Among the participants, 82.4% agreed with the statement, while 8.8% voted neutrally, and 8.8% disagreed.
- I enjoy working with the staff at Corazon
  - When asked if they enjoyed working with the staff at Corazon, the Cerro Azul community once again seemed to generally agree with the statement, as the community had an average score of 4.47. Among those surveyed, 85.3% agreed with the statement, while 8.8% voted neutrally, and 5.9% disagreed.
- I enjoy working with Corazon volunteers
  - When asked if they enjoyed working with Corazon volunteers, the Cerro Azul community seemed to extremely agree with the statement as they had an average score of 4.65. Among those surveyed, 88.2% agreed with the statement, while 8.8% voted neutrally, and 3% extremely disagreed.
- I enjoy working with other Corazon participants (other people from the community)
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the Cerro Azul community seemed to generally agree with the statement as they had an average score of 4.44. Among those surveyed, 85.3% agreed with the statement, while 11.8% voted neutrally, and 2.9% disagreed.

- I have the opportunity to interact with the members of Corazon's Board of Directors
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the community seemed to agree with the statement for the most part, having an average score of 4. Among those surveyed, 73.5% agreed with the statement, while 14.7% voted neutrally, and 11.8% disagreed.
- Staffing levels are adequate to provide quality services
  - When asked if they believed that the staffing levels at Corazon are sufficient enough to provide quality services, the community seemed to generally agree with the statement, having an average score of 4.23. Among the respondents, 79.4% agreed with the statement, while 17.6% voted neutrally, and 3% seemed to completely disagree.
- Corazon's leaders and managers understand the real needs and desires of my community
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the community seemed to agree with the statement as they had an average score of 4.11. Among the respondents, 79.4% agreed with the statement, while 8.8% voted neutrally, and 11.8% disagreed.
- Corazon listens to me
  - When asked if they believed that Corazon listened to them, the community appeared to display a lower average in comparison to the previous responses but the majority still did agree, having an average score of 3.97. Among the respondents, 73.5% agreed, while 8.8% voted neutrally, and 17.7% disagreed.
- Corazon responds to the needs of my community
  - When asked if they felt like Corazon responded to the needs of their community, the Cerro Azul community seemed to generally agree with the statement as they had an average score of 4.5. Among the respondents, 88.2% agreed with the statement, while 5.8% voted neutrally, and 6% disagreed.
- I feel like I have a voice and vote in Corazon's programs
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the Cerro Azul community seemed slightly more divided compared to the previous averages but the majority still did agree with the statement, having an average of 3.85. Among the respondents, 67.6% agreed, while 11.8% voted neutrally, and 20.6% disagreed.
- Corazon offers the programs and education I need and desire
  - When responding to the survey, the Cerro Azul community seemed to be in heavy agreement with the statement as they had an average score of 4.65. Among the respondents, 94.1% seemed to be in agreement with the statement, while 5.9% voted neutrally.
- The staff at Corazon promotes my self-sufficiency

- When asked if they believed that the staff at Corazon helped promote their self-sufficiency, the Cerro Azul community seemed to generally agree with the statement, having an average score of 4.38. Among the respondents, 79.4% agreed with the statement, while 17.6% voted neutrally, and the remaining 3% disagreed with the statement.
- I have the opportunity to help create new community projects
  - When asked this question on the survey, the Cerro Azul community seemed to generally agree with the statement, having an average score of 4.4. Among those surveyed, 88.2% agreed with the statement, while 8.8% voted neutrally, and the remaining 3% disagreed.
- Corazon strengthens my family
  - When asked if they believed that Corazon helped strengthen their family, the general consensus within the Cerro Azul community was that they agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.47. Among the respondents, 85.3% agreed with the statement, while 8.8% voted neutrally, and 5.9% disagreed.
- The training that Corazon offers has been helpful to me and my family
  - When responding to this statement on the survey, it appeared that the Cerro Azul community was in extreme agreement with the statement as they had an average score of 4.79. Among those who responded, 94.1% agreed, while 2.9% voted neutrally, and 3% disagreed.
- How many years in Corazon
  - When the Cerro Azul community was asked how many years they had been apart of Corazon, 4 of the community members responded that they had been in Corazon for 10+ years, while 1 member responded with 7-9 years, 4 members have been in Corazon for 4-6 years, and 25 members have only been in Corazon for 1-3 years.
- Needs septic tank
  - When the Cerro Azul community was asked if they needed a septic tank, 17 of the community members said they did need a septic tank, while the remaining 17 members responded that they did not or that they already had a septic tank.
- Your area has access to municipal water and sewage connection
  - When asked if their area had access to municipal water and sewage connection, 20 of the community members responded that they did have access to municipal water and a sewage connection, while 14 members responded that they did not.
- Will a water truck fit on your street to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank?
  - When the Cerro Azul community was asked if a water truck would fit on their street to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank, 33 of the community members responded that it would, with only 1 member of the community responding with no.

- A septic tank pumper truck will fit on your road and be able to access the tank
  - When asked if a septic tank pumper truck would fit on their road and be able to access the tank, 33 of the community members responded that it would, while only 1 community member responded with no.

Valle de las Palmas- 17 participants

- Confidence in Corazon's leadership
  - When asked if they felt confident in Corazon's leadership, we noticed that this community majorly agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.4. Among those who responded, 82.4% agreed with the statement, while 11.8% voted neutrally, and 5.8% completely disagreed.
- Corazon's leadership treats me like a member of the community, not a statistic
  - When responding to this question on the survey, we once again noticed that the community members extremely agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.53. Among those who responded, 88.2% agreed with the statement, while 5.8% voted neutrally and 6% disagreed.
- The leaders and managers at Corazon give me plenty of recognition for a job well done
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the community appeared to be in major agreement with the statement, having an average score of 4.71. Among the respondents, 94.1% agreed with the statement, while the remaining 5.9% voted neutrally.
- I think there is a spirit of cooperation within Corazon
  - When asked if they believed that there existed a spirit of cooperation within Corazon, the general consensus within the community was that they agreed that there did exist a spirit of cooperation within Corazon, having an average score of 4.4. Among the respondents, 88.2% agreed with the statement, while 6% voted neutrally and 5.8% disagreed with the statement.
- Corazon allows for a culture of diversity
  - When asked if they believed that Corazon allows for a culture of diversity, the Valle de las Palmas community heavily agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.76. Among the respondents, 100% of the community voted in agreement with the statement.
- At Corazon, volunteers and participants have fun
  - When asked if they believed that volunteers and participants at Corazon have fun, the major consensus was that they extremely agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.71. 94.1% of the participants agreed with the statement, while the remaining 5.9% voted neutrally.
- I feel like I can express my honest opinions without fear of consequence

- When responding to this question on the survey, it appeared that the Valle de las Palmas community generally agreed that they could express their opinions without fear of consequence, having an average score of 4.1. Among the participants, 70.6% agreed with the statement, while 17.6% voted neutrally, and the remaining 11.8% disagreed with the statement.
- Any changes that may affect me are communicated to me before they are implemented
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the community generally agreed with the statement as they had an average score of 4.35. Among the respondents, 82.4% agreed with the statement, while 17.6% voted neutrally.
- Safety is a prioritization for this organization
  - When asked if they believed that safety is a priority for Corazon, the community once again heavily agreed with one another on the statement, having an average score of 4.53. Among the respondents, 88.2% agreed with the statement, while 5.8% voted neutrally, and 6% disagreed.
- All Corazon communities are treated fairly and receive equal benefits from Corazon
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the Valle de las Palmas community generally agreed that all Corazon communities are treated fairly and do receive equal benefits, having an average score of 4.4. Among those who responded, 76.5% agreed with the statement, while 17.6% voted neutrally, and the remaining 5.9% disagreed.
- I like the people I work with at Corazon
  - When asked if they liked the people they worked with at Corazon, the community seemed to extremely agree with the statement, having an average score of 4.6. Among those who responded, 88.2% agreed with the statement, while the remaining 11.8% voted neutrally.
- I enjoy working with the staff at Corazon
  - When surveyed if they enjoyed working with the staff at Corazon, the community extremely agreed that they did enjoy working with the staff at Corazon, having an average score of 4.53. 88.2% of the community agreed with the statement, while 5.8% voted neutrally, and the remaining 6% completely disagreed.
- I enjoy working with Corazon volunteers
  - When asked if they enjoyed working with Corazon volunteers, the community extremely agreed with the statement, as they had an average score of 4.76. Among the respondents, 94.1% agreed with the statement, while the remaining 5.9% voted neutrally.
- I enjoy working with other Corazon participants (other people from the community)
  - When asked if they enjoyed working with other Corazon participants, we noticed that this response generated the greatest average score as the community extremely agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.88. 100% of the participants agreed with the statement.

- I have the opportunity to interact with the members of Corazon's Board of Directors
  - When responding to the survey, the general consensus within the community was that they did agree that they had the opportunity to interact with the members of Corazon's Board of Directors, having an average score of 4.59. Among those surveyed, 82.4% agreed with the statement, while the remaining 17.6% voted neutrally.
- Staffing levels are adequate to provide quality services
  - When asked if they believed that the staffing levels at Corazon are sufficient to ensure quality services, the community expressed a major agreement with the statement, having an average score of 4.7. Among those surveyed, 88.2% agreed with the statement, while 11.8% voted neutrally.
- Corazon's leaders and managers understand the real needs and desires of my community
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the general consensus within the community was that they agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.47. Among those surveyed, 82.4% agreed with the statement, while the remaining 17.6% voted neutrally.
- Corazon listens to me
  - When asked if they felt that Corazon listened to them, the community seemed to agree that they did feel listened to by Corazon, having an average score of 4.53. Among those surveyed, 82.4% agreed with the statement while 17.6% of the community voted neutrally on the statement.
- Corazon responds to the needs of my community
  - When surveyed if they felt like Corazon responded to the needs of their community, the community once again generally agreed that Corazon did respond to the needs of their community, having an average score of 4.47. Among the respondents, 76.5% agreed with the statement, while 23.5% voted neutrally.
- I feel like I have a voice and vote in Corazon's programs
  - When surveyed on this question, the community seemed to extremely agree that they did feel like they did have a voice and vote in Corazon's programs, having an average score of 4.76. 100% of the respondents voted in agreement with the statement.
- Corazon offers the programs and education I need and desire
  - When answering this question on the survey, the community heavily agreed that they did feel Corazon provided them with the programs and education they needed and desired, having an average score of 4.76. 94.1% of the respondents agreed with the statement, while 5.9% voted disagreeing.

- The staff at Corazon promotes my self-sufficiency
  - When surveyed if they felt that the staff at Corazon helped promote their self-sufficiency, the general consensus was that they agreed with the statement, having an average score of 4.47. Among the respondents, 76.5% agreed, while 17.6% voted neutrally, and the remaining 5.9% disagreed.
- I have the opportunity to help create new community projects
  - When responding to this question on the survey, the community heavily expressed their agreement with the statement, as they had an average score of 4.71. Among the respondents, 94.1% agreed with the statement, while the remaining 5.9% voted neutrally.
- Corazon strengthens my family
  - When asked if they believed that Corazon helped strengthen their family, the Valle de las Palmas community came to a consensus that they felt like Corazon did help strengthen their family, having an average score of 4.65. Among the respondents, 88.2% agreed with the statement, while 11.8% voted neutrally.
- The training that Corazon offers has been helpful to me and my family
  - When responding to the survey, we noticed that the community extremely agreed with the statement that the training that Corazon offered them did help them and their families, having an average score of 4.65. Among those surveyed, 88.2% agreed with the statement, with the remaining 11.8% voting neutrally.
- How many years in Corazon
  - When the Valle de las Palmas community was asked how many years they had been in Corazon, 2 of the members of the community stated that they had been in Corazon for 10+ years, 2 members stated that they have been in Corazon for 7-9 years, 2 members responded that they have been in Corazon for 4-6 years, and the remaining 11 members stated that they have been in Corazon for 1-3 years.
- Needs septic tank
  - When the Valle de las Palmas community was asked if they would need a septic tank, 9 of the community members responded with yes, while 8 responded that they would not.
- Your area has access to municipal water and sewage connection
  - When the Valle de las Palmas community was asked if they had access to municipal water and a sewage connection, only 3 of the community members responded that they did have access, while 14 members of the community responded that they did not.
- Will a water truck fit on your street to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank?
  - When asked if a water truck would fit on their street to be able to deliver water regularly and be able to access a water storage tank, 16 members of the community responded that it would, while only 1 responded with no.

- A septic tank pumper truck will fit on your road and be able to access the tank
  - When asked if a septic pumper truck would fit on their road and be able to access the tank, 16 of the community members stated that it would, while only one responded with no.

Reasons for being in the community

- “For a new opportunity to grow, I am currently renting a house, and more than anything, I aim to live here with my daughter. With the rent money I currently pay, I will give it to my daughter in the future for her education.” (member of the Flores Magon community).
- “For work and necessity, I have 2 daughters who depend on me, and I am a single mother. Although I dream sincerely sometimes, I don’t have any work, and it is difficult for me to get ahead as I do not have a salon; I work from home.” (Flores Magon community)