

Picture of Phase One of the Kenai Peninsula Peace Crane Garden Trails

The crane sculpture in clay prior to the firing process (to be completed Fall 2020)

The Haiku on the back of one wing, chosen from those made by students in the Kenai Peninsula Borough School District for this purpose.

The following pictures show the spruing of over thirty waxes has been completed with their multiple wax tubes, air vents and pouring cups.

